NEW BUILDING

This week, in the gas carrier sector, CNOOC announced ordering six firm 174k CBM LNG Carriers at Hudong Zhonghua, with deliveries of the first and second vessel set for 2025, the third, fourth and fifth in 2026 and the final vessel to be delivered in 2027. Hyundai Samho announced contracting a firm 174k CBM LNG Carrier with an unknown owner, with delivery of the vessel set for October 2025.

In containers, Huanghai SB announced taking orders for ten firm gearless 1,800TEU Containerships from SITC, with deliveries expected to run throughout 2024.

In the MPP sector, Wagenborg Shipping announced ordering one firm plus one optional 14.3k Dwt Open-hatch Carrier at Niestern Sander. The vessel is Ice Class 1A and is set to be delivered within 1H 2023.

Finally, in the Car Carrier market, Hoegh declared four optional 9,100 CEU PCTC's at China Merchants HI (Jiangsu). The vessels are LNG Dual fuel as well as holding Ammonia ready and Methanol ready class notations. The first two vessels will be delivered in 2H 2025 and the other two vessels in 1H 2026, bringing the series to eight at the yard.

RECYCLING

Lost Momentum!

With various holidays in effect, the market took on a much quieter role this week but there have been further signs of a weakening market from all the recycling destinations in the Indian Sub. Continent. As we arrive towards the end of Ramadan, and subsequently head into the Eid festivities, in addition to Golden week in the Far East, next week, we can expect a very quiet period.

Increasing Covid-19 outbreaks in China is stalling their domestic steel demand recovery further during what is typically a peak period for steel consumption. The emergence of these cases comes at a time when there is still no end in sight for lockdowns in Shanghai, and now Beijing, to contain the spread of the coronavirus amid the country's latest surge. The iron ore and steel prices continue to fall in China which is having a knock-on effect to the recycling destinations. The general view however is that price levels will rebound in a positive manner once the sub. Continent markets open after the holiday period.

There are no sales to report this week
